

2019 SF State Silver Lining Lecture & SF DAAS Community Training: Addressing Aging & Homelessness in San Francisco

Friday, September 27, 11:45 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Seven Hills Conference Center at San Francisco State University

1600 Holloway Avenue, San Francisco, CA 94132

You are invited to become a sponsor of the 2019 SF State Silver Lining Lecture & SF DAAS Community Training: Addressing Aging & Homelessness in San Francisco. In addition to high visibility marketing for your business or organization, net proceeds from your generous sponsorship will support the Gerontology Program's graduate scholarship funds for current students and overall program development. Please make your commitment by September 17 for program inclusion.

Joining us at the event will be a high-profile supporter of elder rights who will serve as our 2019 Distinguished Long-Term Care Advocate Award honoree and keynote speaker. Past awardees include former State Senator Mark Leno (2017) and State Senator Scott Wiener (2018). Our community training presenters will include leaders from the medical and social service sectors, who will speak to the unique challenges of San Francisco's aging homeless population.
