APPAREL DESIGN & MERCHANDISING

FALL 2021

The Family Interiors Nutrition & Apparel Department (FINA) offers a B.S. in Apparel Design and Fashion Merchandising. Students will understand and apply knowledge about the roles and functions of various industry sectors in which textiles and sewn products are developed, produced, marketed, sold and consumed, including design, construction, sourcing, manufacturing, marketing and merchandising processes. A common core of classes enables students to develop a consumer and socially conscious approach to the industry and a basic knowledge of the field including career opportunities, terminology and professional practices as applied to the industry.

ABOUT THE MAJOR

The B.S. in Apparel Design & Merchandising (ADM) has two concentrations: Apparel Design and Fashion Merchandising. Students explore human behavior, social problems and environmental concerns, interpreting influences and outcomes for the globally interdependent apparel industry.

CONCENTRATION AREAS

B.S. Apparel Design

The Apparel Design concentration is specific to students who are interested exploring the process of creating garments from pattern making or draping to construction.

B.S. Fashion Merchandising

The Fashion Merchandising concentration is for students interested in exploring the promotional and strategic practices of consumer behavior and retail business management.

AP and IB exam scores as well as courses taken at community college may impact the suggested course sequencing. If you are not sure how this will affect you, please contact an SRC advisor.

ADDING, DROPPING AND WITHDRAWING FROM CLASSES AFTER START OF SEMESTER

Please be aware of all deadlines. You may add courses via your Gateway before the first day of instruction, provided there is space available. Once classes start, you will need a permission number from your instructor to add a course via Gateway.

Dropping courses via your Gateway without it being noted on your academic record must occur within the first three weeks of each semester. After this three-week period, you are no longer allowed to drop courses via your Gateway. At this point, you must have a serious and compelling reason to withdraw from a course and submit a petition that includes supporting documentation and an unofficial transcript. If approved, a "W" will appear on your academic record. Withdrawals that lack serious and compelling reasons and/or viable supporting documentation may be denied within the College of Health & Social Sciences. Be conscientious about withdrawing from classes, as you are only allowed a maximum of 18 units for withdrawal. Please also keep in mind that you are only allowed to repeat a course once after receiving a failing grade.

Lastly, it is ALWAYS students' responsibility to ensure that they are in the appropriate classes — always check your schedule!
